

Samford University's Brock School of Business invites applications for a faculty position in the Department of Accounting and Management Information Systems with a specialty in taxation to begin Fall 2010. Required qualifications include an earned doctorate in accounting with credentials sufficient to support an appointment at the rank of assistant, associate, or full professor. Professional experience in taxation and professional certifications will be viewed favorably. Applicants for this position should show promise for effective classroom teaching and the production of scholarly publications, as well as the ability and willingness to interface with the professional accounting community. Applicants also must support the university's Christian mission.

Samford University, founded in 1841, is a private university located in the suburbs of Birmingham, Alabama with approximately 4,500 undergraduate and graduate students. U.S. News & World Report ranks Samford in the top tier of the 262 institutions in the doctoral research category in its America's Best Colleges. The Brock School of Business is accredited by AACSB International and has more than 500 students in its undergraduate, M.Acc., and M.B.A. programs.

Please send a cover letter and a current vita with three references to: Dr. Lowell S. Broom, Brock School of Business, Samford University, 800 Lakeshore Drive, Birmingham, AL 35229.

Please visit our website at www.samford.edu/business for more information.

Samford University is an Equal Opportunity Institution that complies with applicable law prohibiting discrimination in its educational and employment policies and does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, disability, or national or ethnic origin.