

Assistant/Associate Professor
Graduate Studies Program
Orlean Bullard Beeson School of Education and Professional Studies

The Orlean Bullard Beeson School of Education and Professional Studies at Samford University, Birmingham, Ala., invites applications for a tenure-track assistant or associate professor position in the education graduate studies program to begin August 2012. Responsibilities include:

- Teaching graduate level classes
- Accountability reports
- Statistical work with student dissertations
- Research

Requirements: Applicants must hold Ph.D. or Ed.D. in educational research or related field and have appropriate post-doctoral experience, strong analytical ability, positive interpersonal skills, and effective oral and written communication skills. Candidates must be supportive of the university's Christian mission.

Applicants should send a letter of interest, resume/vitae, three references, transcripts from all universities/colleges, and a summary of planned or ongoing research to Ms. Leslie Mann , Graduate Studies Coordinator, Orlean Bullard Beeson School of Education and Professional Studies, 800 Lakeshore Drive , Birmingham, AL 35229.

Applications must be received by January 20, 2012. Applications will be reviewed and will remain in consideration until the position is filled.

Samford University is an Equal Opportunity Institution that complies with applicable law prohibiting discrimination in its educational and employment policies and does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, disability, veteran status, genetic information, or national or ethnic origin.