

TENURE-TRACK, LIGHTING AND AUDIO DESIGN

Samford University, School of the Arts, Department of Theatre and Dance, seeks a full-time, tenure-track faculty member in lighting design and sound design.

Ideally, applicants will hold an M.F.A. or equivalent professional experience. Previous teaching experience is desirable. Candidates should have knowledge of moving light technology and lighting software programs knowledge of digital and analog audio technology (mixers, control, delivery), networking, and audio analysis software. The responsibilities of this position will include teaching lighting and audio design and skills within a B.A. and B.F.A. curriculum, serving as academic advisor for design students, and involvement in student recruitment. Additional teach responsibility may include theatre appreciation. Beginning rank will be based on experience. Candidates must be supportive of the university's Christian mission.

Please send cover letter, detailed CV, teaching philosophy, and list of three references by January 3, 2012, to Search Chair, Don Sandley, Ph.D., Samford University, School of the Arts Department of Theatre and Dance, 800 Lakeshore Drive, Birmingham, AL, 35229. Telephone: 205-726-2952

Inquiries by email to dtsandle@samford.edu or 205-726-2951.

General Information: Samford University, a Christian comprehensive institution, is the largest independent university in Alabama, with approximately 3,000 undergraduate students and 1,700 graduate students pursuing degrees in the schools of arts, arts and sciences, business, divinity, education and professional studies, law, nursing and pharmacy.

Start Date: August 2012

Samford University is an Equal Opportunity Institution that complies with applicable law prohibiting discrimination in its educational and employment policies and does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, disability, veteran status, genetic information, or national or ethnic origin.