This is a non-tenure track appointment and is subject to renewal at the mutual agreement of both parties. Unless negotiations are opened in the future regarding future teaching, this agreement will expire on the date indicated without further notification. It is understood that all offers of employment are contingent upon the positive outcome of a background check.

It is understood that those employed by Samford University will advance its purpose and objectives, uphold its policies, maintain a cooperative spirit with associates within the academic community, dedicate all efforts to the broad interests of the University, and abide by all rules promulgated by the Board of Trustees. The faculty member has no right, express or implied, to act on behalf of Samford University except as described herein, and recognizes that failure to adhere to the rules, regulations and teaching requirements established by the University may result in the termination of this agreement by the University.

In accordance with trustee policy, as a teacher of courses in religion or divinity, you explicitly affirm the Baptist Statement of Faith and Message of 1963, including the preface, and without added interpretation. If you have other views, it is your responsibility to attach a written expression of how your beliefs may vary from the Baptist Statement of Faith and Message of 1963.

If for any reason service ceases before the term of appointment is ended, salary will be prorated and paid to date of termination in accordance with University policies for part-time faculty personnel.
