

The mission of the School of Business Undergraduate Student Advisory Council (USAC) is to represent and respond to student concerns, to bring faculty and students together, to promote the development and growth of academic programs and facilities thus striving to make our school distinctive among other professional schools.

USAC 2006-07 Members:

Jonathan Cox - senior
Joseph Edens - senior
Claire Melchiori - senior
Guy Walker - senior

Brittany Bergquist - junior
Ben Buchanan - junior
Zach Dark - junior
Lydia Foxworth - junior

Kristen Bucher - sophomore
Genevieve Eller - sophomore
Brad Johnson - sophomore

Faculty Advisor: Dr. Steve Jones

USAC meets once a month and at the discretion of the Director of the Undergraduate Programs. USAC is the Dean's representative student council and hosts internal and external events under his/her direction.

Applications for USAC are taken during the Spring semester prior to the academic year of service.

Please direct any questions to Barbara Cartledge, Director of Undergraduate Programs at 726-2935 or bhcartle@samford.edu.