

Samford University Spirit Plaza

For more than 125 years, Samford University has competed in intercollegiate athletics. On April 6, 1878, the Howard College team beat Southern University in a game of baseball. Intercollegiate football began with a victory over Marion Institute in a game played at the 1902 Alabama State Fair.

In a celebration of school spirit, the Samford Class of 2003 presented a bronze medallion (bas relief) of the Samford Bulldog. Their senior year marked the centennial of football and the 125th anniversary of athletics. The bas relief will be the focal point of Spirit Plaza to be constructed between F. Page Seibert Stadium and Joe Lee Griffin Baseball Field.

All current Samford students, alumni, parents, faculty, staff and friends can show their pride by placing a commemorative brick in Spirit Plaza.

Spirit Plaza will be dedicated during Homecoming October 29, 2005.

It's great to be a Samford Bulldog!
